NITEO Peer Mentoring Program

The Peer Mentoring Program at the Center for Psychiatric Rehabilitation is one of several eminent, innovative College Mental Health Programs for young adults living with a serious mental health condition offered at Boston University. Our Peer Mentors are alumni of our College Mental Health Program, NITEO, who host weekly activities, classes, and social outings providing support and structured opportunities for students to build academic, health, and wellness and skills, as well as community and strong social connections. This semester, we welcomed our twentieth Peer Mentor to our staff. Read more about one student's path to joining the Peer Mentor family.
